Dedication

To Pryor alumni who have gone out to stand against an enemy which would deprive us of our freedoms, we dedicate the 1951 Blue and Gold book of memories.

*"It breaks his heart that kings must murder still,
That all his hours of travail here for men
Seem yet in vain. And who will bring white Peace
That he may sleep upon his hill again?"*

--Vachel Lindsay

Foreword

This is our school, our town, our community.

Here we live the year-round, going to school, playing and working. In this rural section of the United States of America live an enterprising and energetic type of citizenry. We aspire to enlarge the agricultural aspect and to develop the industrial field as fast as facilities and a peaceful era will allow.

Situated on trans-continental travel routes, Pryor is as close to its customers and warehouses as the M K & T Railroad and State Highway 69. An airport accommodating private planes and the lake area to the northeast, feasible for seaplanes, are available for air travel.

Telephone, telegraph and radio communication are as modern as the day. KOLS, operating from 7 a.m. to sunset on 1570 kilocycles, has been in operation since June, 1950

The School is a central enterprise with more than 500 enrolled in high-school. The new building was completed in 1944 with 28 classrooms and auditorium. The gymnasium is a remodeled building since the 1942 tornado.

Farms boast a variety of products, perhaps the most extensive being stock-raising. Several strains of pure-bred cattle are raised in the area. Planting permanent pasture is a common practice.

Pryor homes range from the luxurious to the modest one-unit type. World War II brought in federal housing projects, and within the past 10 years many new homes have been built by successful citizens of the town. Television aerials bristle over many homes, large and small, in town and on the farms.

Pryor is in the lake section of Oklahoma where the hunting and fishing are richest of the state and where water power is turned into electricity.

Shops in downtown Pryor are as up-to-date as can be found anywhere. On direct lines are Kansas City to the north and Dallas to the south.

This is our school, our town, our community. We love it.

In the Cafeteria

Five hundred students ate lunch at the cafeteria on average days throughout the year. At work are Mrs. P. H. Hillin (supervisor), Mrs. C. C. Holderman, Mrs. E. C. Bradley, Mrs. Fay Chester, Mrs. C. C. Curnutt, and Mrs. Roxie Riley.

Keeping Us Ready

E. C. Bradley and Frank Panter connect the Valentine front hall piece. This was nearly as interesting as the Christmas tree in December.

Getting Us to School

Students riding buses are covered by accident and liability insurance. These buses are busy vehicles: 47,838 miles on regular trips and 15,000 miles for activities. Drivers are Earl Harris, Al Watkins, Jack Flint, C. T. Clawson and Bunny Reeves.

The Classes

The classes of the school are held in the gymnasium and are supervised by the most experienced teachers of the district.

Our Favorites

Pryor looks like a new town with many modern-styled homes.

In 1942 a tornado swept through Pryor, taking toll of 85 persons and wrecking structures in the downtown section. This called for a general re-building of business houses and of many residences.

During World War II the Oklahoma Ordnance Plant brought hundreds of workers. To house many of these, the federal government built homes in Pryor as well as dormitories on the plant grounds south of the city. Private building was as lush as war priorities would allow.

Today Pryor is a well-kept clean little town in the 5,000 population class, with hundreds of homes single-unit, adequate and new.

Our Studies

Agriculture is a major activity in the locality and in the school. More than 500 carloads of livestock and grain are shipped from the Pryor yards yearly. Livestock breeding is a major industry and sales total in the range of $300,000 per year.

Joan, Merriam and Celia give out a melodic "I Don't Care if the Sun Don't Shine," while Janis helps out on the piano.

Looking in on speech class, we find some of the girls working industriously--er--that is, supposed to be. Just notice poor Pat.

The boys' quartet, Don, Coy, Windle and Jerry, sing for us in many of our assemblies. Their accompanist is Georgeanne Middleton.

Barbara Trotter: (in Latin II) "No, Carrie Jo, 'ire' -- fourth conjugation, not first."

Velda and Jim find figures of speech in Alan Seeger's war poem.

Iva Dell and Carolyn locate Boston and Bunker Hill for Betty.

Bill is an exception to the rule--of hard workers--in Mr. Parks' refresher class in arithmetic.

Juanita gets a squint while Mary Lee and George dissect the frog.

Did three cooks "spoil the broth?"
Pat, Carol and Georgia make a cake.

Darlene shows Mabel, Juanita, Pete, Tommie, and Lewis how to figure the time elapsed since a given hour two days ago.

Sophomores learn that "chords equidistant from center are equal." Haskell and Carrie Jo question the next step.

"Has anybody ever found the value of X?" Earlyne, Shirley and Truman wait for volunteers.

Not much relaxation in the journalism room. Curtis and Geraldine confer about stories on the editorial page. William writes sports, and Hershah looks for background material for a news story.

Nine juniors take the typing assignment seriously. (Front to back: Charles, Loveta, Pauline, Louise, Iva Dell, Delma, Marlyn, Shirley and Kernelia.

First semester driving students and the man who taught them safe driving, David Mitchell. (Yea Safe!)

Mr. Cunningham has 100% attention. Farrell, Bob, Pat and Mary look on.

Here we look in on Miss Harp's sewing class. Just like bees, they are always busy.

Here we find Mrs. Weeks' World History class at work. Imogene and Joan appear to be studying terribly hard.

Joan, Mary and Dorothy busily getting their shorthand. And if you really expect to get shorthand it would really have to be busily.

Oklahoma History and Civics taught by Mr. Trask. It shows June Boren reading her daily lesson.

Bob, Joyce, and Joe tediously reading their lesson. That is, we guess they are.

Dick, Emma, and Bob seem to be intent on this physics experiment.

The head master of Lowood School denounces poor little Jane Eyre as members of a freshman English class see the motion picture.

Here we are looking in on the sophomore English class at work. Alice, Janet and Sonia 'pear to be working industriously.

J. W. "addresses" his section in senior English.

Here are some of the boys in Mechanical Drawing. Working hard, Jerry?

Estelene, Paul, Claudine and Elizabeth learn machine bookkeeping.

Hubba! Hubba! The boys and girls in "Art" are using Bob Landers for their model.

Looks like the boys are putting the finishing touch on a cabinet over in shop. It looks nice.

Be sure to get that print in the right place Willard. Let's not have any errors.

Better hurry kids. It's almost time for 5th hour.

Dorothy, don't you have enough milk without stealing Bob's?

The Cheerleaders rear back and let go with a "Yea Man" as they finish one of their vells.

Looks like mass production on the cafeteria front.

The Pryor Tiger Band

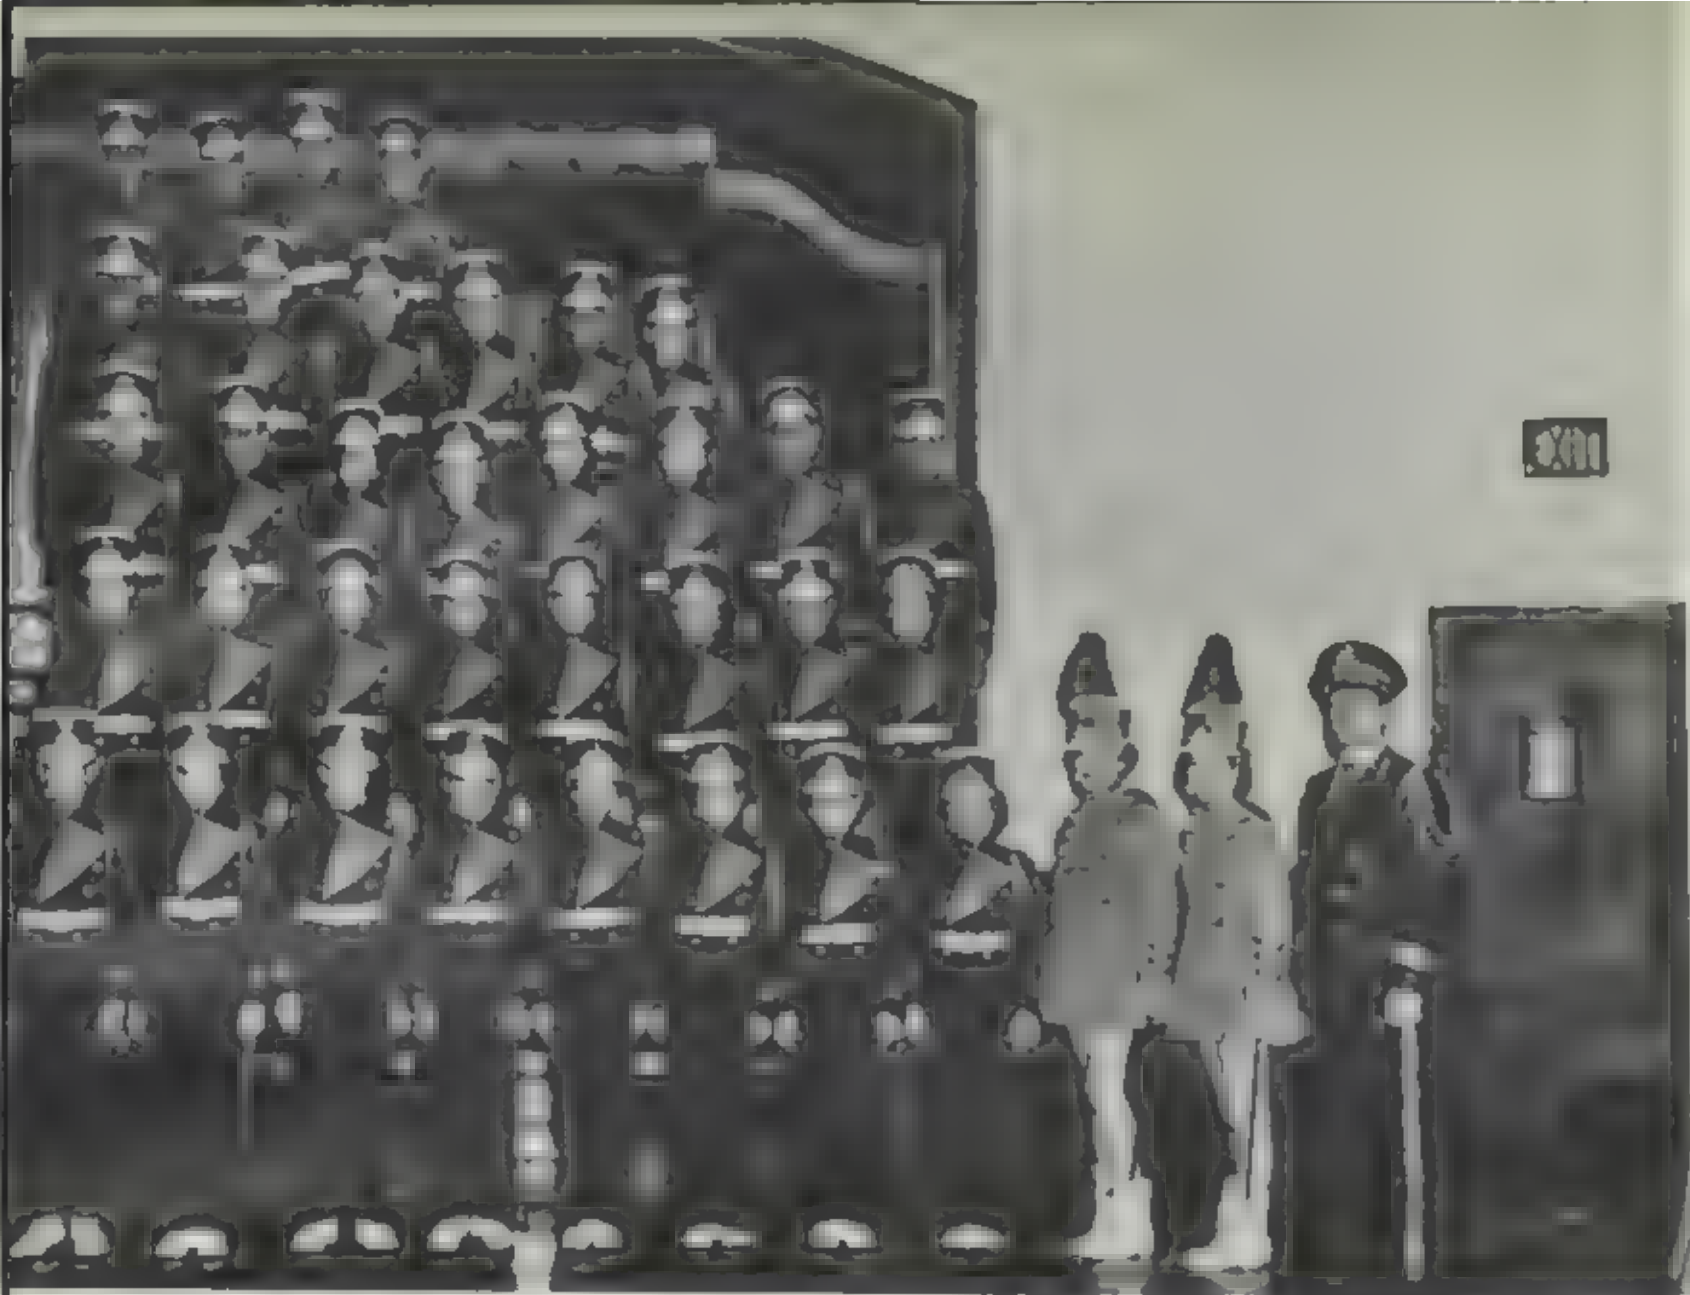

The unpredictable Pryor Tiger Band has gone through sleet, rain and four Band directors and has come out in 80 pieces—to remain one of the top bands of the state.

The band started its activities at the game under the direction of James M. Gerard. He, being a commissioned officer in the Marine reserves, was mobilized and his father Ronald Gerard took over the leadership of the Tiger Band. Mr. Ronald Gerard, who is the Claremore band director, drove back and forth to direct the band until the present director Gilbert Briggs was procured. In the meantime James Saied directed at night football games.

The flashing blue and gold uniforms have been captured on color film by Mr. Briggs at the many parades, fairs and other events in which they participated. The band viewed these films at the Annual Christmas party.

A new activity has been initiated for the year—that of a pep band playing at basketball games.

Join' The Pigskin

When the Pryor Tigers' absorbed a 13-0 shellacking at the hands of the Claremore Zebras, on the night of November 17, the Tigers closed out a dismal 1950 football campaign during which they won only three games while dropping seven.

That night was the climax of four years of hard work and sacrifice. Although Pryor was usually on the winning side of the score, the Tigers were never able to "win sports."

Pryor opened the 1950 season at Pitcher where they walked off with a 12-0 decision on the strength of Lip Jones' 45 yard touchdown gallop and Bob Lander's one yard smash to pay dirt.

The Tigers' encountered the Yale Bulldogs next and, although they had two tallies called back, managed to bring home a 12-0 victory, as Jones and Kating scored once each.

After two successive victories on foreign soil, Pryor Tigers' met the Cleveland Tigers in their first home game of the season. After playing to a 0-0 halftime deadlock, Cleveland broke loose in the second half and handed the locals an 18-6 reversal. Jones counted Pryor's only touchdown.

The Tigers' clashed with the Miami War-jogs next and after Johnny Edmonson had given Pryor 7-6 lead, Miami scored on a 60 yard pass play in the final minute to take a 12-7 victory over Pryor.

After dropping a 19-2 decision to Sand Springs, the Tigers' hit the victory trail against the Vinita Hornets.

Barney Foreman's 25 yard aerial to Tommy Lucas on the last part of the game broke a 19-19 tie, and gave the Tigers' a 25-19 Homecoming victory. Pryor had scored previously on 60 yard jaunt by Foreman, a 40 yard run by Jones and a 51 yard pass from Foreman to Lucas.

The Tigers then traveled to Nowata where they took a 21-0 thrashing from the Ironmen.

Pawhuska was next on the Tigers' schedule, and the Huskies raced past the Tigers 32-7 on a muddy field in freezing weather. Pryor's only counter came when Foreman plunged two yards late in the last period.

In their next to last game of the season, the Tigers' were smothered 32-0 by the powerful Broken Arrow Tigers. Broken Arrow went on to take the 7-A flag.

Held scoreless for 45 minutes, the Tigers' struck pay dirt when Johnny Edmonson intercepted a pass and returned it 30 yards to score, and Foreman shot a 20 yard payoff pass to Lucas in the end zone. However, that wasn't near enough, and the 1950 Tiger Football team said farewell to the soft turf of Tiger Stadium.

Court Capers

Although handicapped by fact of the 1950-51 Pryor cagers have managed to win nine games so far this season (Feb. 14) while losing seven.

The Tigers have a 5-7 conference record and are in a tie for third place.

They are undefeated on the home court, so far, having won eight straight games at home, and are only one away from a record.

Three of the seven losses were by two points as the scores will indicate.

The fact that the Tigers will lose only one man this season brightens the future considerably for Pryor.

Ray Lawson (11) goes high in effort to tip ball to Hill in scene from Broken Arrow game. Other Pryor players, Boggs (10), Foreman (left edge), and Lucas background are shown.

The Pryor Tiger baseball team of 1951 promises to be one of the best in the conference.

The team is built around twelve returning lettermen, seven of which were regulars on last year's squad which won eight and lost six. The Tigers won three, lost two, and tied one in conference play last season.

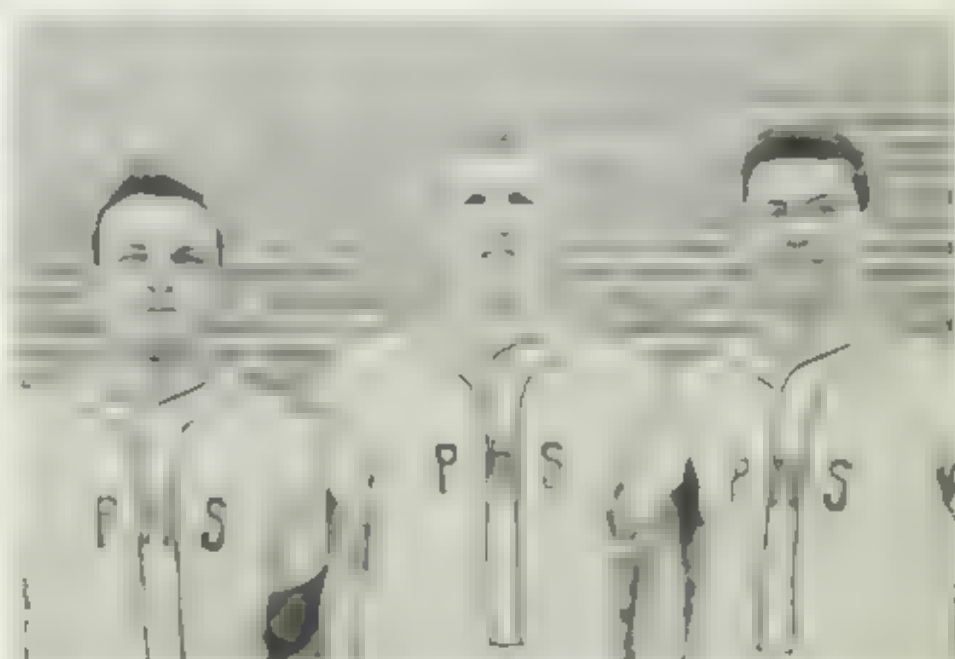

When the last "pill-bustin'" session is over and the smoke of battle has cleared, will the Tigers be on top of the heap? Who knows?

Dugout Dope
